

CULTURAL

Business provides opportunities to produce goods and offer services that promote human flourishing

RELATIONAL

Business provides opportunities to create workplace environments where people flourish and use their unique abilities

ETHICAL

Business provides opportunities to reflect God's character by operating in an ethically upright manner

EVANGELISTIC

Business provides opportunities to make faith attractive by how we act and speak, and to open doors for gospel conversations

SOCIAL

Business provides opportunities to leverage influence and resources to address social needs in the community and the world

ECONOMIC

Business provides opportunities to create wealth to be enjoyed and used to enrich life for many

GROWING A BUSINESS THAT GLORIFIES GOD

Business is morally good and significant in and of itself.

It has intrinsic, not just instrumental, value.

Through business we can immerse ourselves in God's work every day.